

Counter-Sputnik Futuring

Mr. Andres Agostini is an Enlightenment SAGE and is a very rare example of someone who can not only think big and fast but can also bring those innovative ideas, both by entrepreneurs and other start-up incumbents, down to earth and formulate them into strategic, executable plans with guaranteed continual success. Andres is a very driven, motivated, generous, and successful manager and strategist that facilitates decision making and problem solving into enduring profit. Many tend, in the hundreds, to gravitate to Andres for his awesome unprecedented step-by-step advice on a variety of business and high-tech topics, knowing that he is able to provide swift feedback for any situation, as well as a detailed pathway to profit from such situation, from A through Z. Andres is fun, a practical world-class right-thinker, beyond any unthinkable new frontiers, and has truly been a positive great resource for me and provides me with outstanding leadership competencies at all levels of my business and any marketplace.

Andres is a natural kind gentleman that is driven by short-term and long-term measurable objectives and he acts on them immediately, beforehand, to reach those objectives, superseding everyone's original expectations. He is motivated for justice, fairness, transparency, accountability, and business ethics to be present in every action he takes. I recommend Andres to any visionary corporate client that really wants to go faster, go on longer run and overcome the designated target early on while delivering a sustainable growth, continuously. As I already have before, I will be SEEKING his permanent professional advice often digitally, despite his frequent traveling around the world, he is always available to me and my staff. I also recommend Andres very highly as he has introduced me to several invaluable business owners and clients in the brick-and-mortar and cloud-based world to jump-start my business into further globalization. Ms. Soenja Lammers (Seoul, South Korea) <http://linkd.in/1vpwAtr>
