

If my memory serves me correctly, said the grandfather, when we left off, Long-Long had undertaken extensive study in a variety of subjects, and had experienced some very intense physical training. By having overcome these challenges, the little mouse has emerged much more focused and determined. That's right! exclaimed the youngest child. And because he's so good, the Master is going to train him in the ways of ninjutsu. Yes, said the grandfather, and in other ways, too.
