

The Third Tower Up from the Road: A Compilation of Columns from McSweeneys Internet TendenciesKevin Dolgin Tells You about Places You Should Go

The Third Tower Up from the Road is a humorous and entertaining collection of travel essays made up of old favorites as well as new commentaries from Kevin Dolgin's popular McSweeney's Internet Tendency column, Kevin Dolgin Tells You About Places You Should Go. The work celebrates the distinctive qualities of locales the world over, and each globetrotting essay focuses on a specific place, capturing the flavors and cultures through individual observations and exceptional experiences. Funny, irreverent, and insightful, these writings eschew the bland, touristy veneer experienced by most travelers as they seek to discover what is special and unique about each destination. Covering a wide range of places and interests, from unusual experiences and humorous travelers foibles to voyages that are intensely personal and moving, the selected columns include The Best Falafel in the World: Beirut, Lebanon, The Door to Hell: Paris, France, Kafkas Erotic Dream: Prague, Czech Republic, The Nesting Habits of Roman Cars: Rome, Italy, Of Romans and Pussycats: Provence, France, and The Third Tower Up from the Road: Huanghuacheng, China. Also featured is The Corsican Swallowtail: Corsica, France, which was nominated for a Pushcart Prize.
